

Jeffersonville Campus

Class Name

Facilitator(s)

Location

Meeting Time

Platform

Description

With This Ring/Relationship

Min. Norman Seawright & M. Lou Seawright

West Wing Conference Rm.

Sundays at 8:00 a.m.

609-746-1082, Access Code 407481#

Relationships, (vertical, horizontal, internal) Practical Living with the focus on developing a stronger personal relationship with God, through Christ Jesus, to enhance relationships with one another.

Target Demographic

Everyone desiring to grow closer to the Lord

Class Difficulty Level

Essentials – For growing believers. Focuses on key doctrines, Christian living, and spiritual development.

Class Name

Facilitator(s)

Location

Meeting Time

Platform

Description

New Millennium and One Accord

Dea. Kirk Scrivner and Ann Wills

Sundays at 10:30 a.m.

In-person

The mission of New Millennium is to empower adults to apply biblical truths to their daily lives, equipping them to be faithful disciples and witness for Christ in StStephen Church and the world. As well as being instrumental in the process of fostering a closer relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Target Demographic

Adult believers

Class Difficulty Level

Application – For students who want to focus on how to live out their faith in everyday life, career, family, or ministry.

Class Name

Facilitator(s)

Location

Meeting Time

Platform

Description

Filled with the Spirit

Dea. Will Rodgers and Kathy Goodman

MPR 130

Sundays at 10:30 a.m.

In-person

This class is for adults who desire a step-by-step approach to learning. Lessons are structured so that each topic builds on students current knowledge level allowing students to grow and mature at their own pace. Lessons are from the standard St. Stephen series as directed by Christian Education.

Target Demographic

Adults at all levels.

Class Difficulty Level

Foundations – For those new to the faith, church, or Bible study. Covers basics like salvation, prayer, and understanding scripture.

Class Name	Sunday School Young Adult Edition
Facilitator(s)	Rev. Kevin Adams, Micah Camble, Candace Bell, Monique Stephens, Carmilla Hyatt, Aaron Barbour, Letti Panwo
Location	2nd Floor Conference Rm.
Meeting Time	Sundays at 11:00 a.m.
Platform	Online
Description	This Sunday school class for young adults will be an opportunity to grow in their our faith, build community and be apart something special. All campuses will be going through Rev. Dr. Kevin Cosby's book "Jesus Grew, How about you?"
Target Demographic	18 to 38
Class Difficulty Level	Foundations – For those new to the faith, church, or Bible study. Covers basics like salvation, prayer, and understanding scripture.
Class Name	Happy Hour
Facilitator(s)	Rev. Geneva Nelson
Location	Rms. 109/111
Meeting Time	Mondays at 5:30 p.m.
Platform	In-person
Description	This class is designed to do in depth study and is designed for all ages, sexes and denominations. Dinner is served at 5:30 and the study period is 6-7 p.m.
Target Demographic	This class is designed for ALL ages and persons from all walks of life.
Class Difficulty Level	Application – For students who want to focus on how to live out their faith in everyday life, career, family, or ministry.

BJ Miller Institute Classes - Sundays

Correcting Your Eyesight: Reading Scripture From the Margins? — MPR 109

Reading Scripture from the Margins provides perspectives often overlooked by traditional scholars and gives voices to those on the margins. This class will provide students with the tools to read the Scriptures with eyes that speak to their current context.

Facilitator: Dea. Will Rodgers

Meeting Time: 8:00 a.m.

Break the Chains: Exodus and Revolution — MPR 110

This course explores the enduring power of the Exodus narrative, its usefulness as a revolutionary narrative, and how Exodus can empower current readers to create, maintain and sustain social justice ministry and partner with God in fighting for justice and equality.

Facilitator: Rev. Dr. Stephanie Barber

Meeting Time: 10:30 a.m.